

KAYUMANIS

Discover the Natural Beauty of China at Kayumanis Yangshuo

In a concerted effort to diversify its growing hospitality portfolio, Kayumanis Group has launched a second property in Mainland China. Kayumanis Yangshuo Private Villa & Spa is located in an agriculturally rich county where karst mountains and flowing rivers dominate the landscape.

Yangshuo County in Guilin, China is a hidden gem that is just waiting to be explored at a relaxed pace. Once just a sleepy town that attracted adventurous backpackers, the whole area has opened up in recent years driven by the development of a modern infrastructure. Yangshuo is now a resort destination offering high-end accommodation options and supporting tourism facilities.

Encompassed within 18 hectares of prime riverside land, Kayumanis Yangshuo brings an element of luxury to a rural village area characterised by its magnificent karst mountains. Featuring a bespoke collection of 30 private villas and lifestyle services, it is an exclusive retreat for discerning travellers looking to temporarily escape and reconnect with the splendour of nature.

Kayumanis Yangshuo is supported by a dedicated Spa facility offering a carefully curated menu of body and beauty treatments for head to toe rejuvenation. Appetites are satisfied at Nine Restaurant, a striking structure designed to seemingly float above ground. It serves Western fusion and Asian specialties, particularly from Indonesia, using fresh and seasonal ingredients sourced locally. Other onsite facilities for in-house guests include a Lobby Bar, Library Lounge, Gallery and two Meeting Rooms.

As a picturesque destination blessed with mountains, hidden caves and scenic rivers, Yangshuo County, Guilin is considered a jewel in China's flourishing tourism sector. This agrarian area possesses a rare natural beauty that ignites the imagination. Culturally rich with a colourful history that can be traced back some 2000 years, Guilin is home to at least twelve different ethnic groups of people. This diversity has greatly influenced aspects such as spiritual beliefs, local etiquette along with the region's artistic nuance and specialty handcrafts. All this is just waiting to be experienced at Kayumanis Yangshuo.

For further information please contact:

Phone : +62 361 705 777

Email : experience@kayumanis.com